

to fall in love

to go steady (boyfriend) to get engaged (fiancée) (engagement rings)

to marry
(to walk down the aisle)

Wedding

(love and relationships)

bride bridegroom

in a white dress in a three-pieced suit (jacket, trousers & vest) bow-tie around the neck bridesmaid best man

wedding ceremony in a church / registry office held by a priest by a justice of peace wedding reception

cutting the cake

throwing the bouquet

All single women present compete in catching it.
The woman who catches the bouquet is said to be the next who will marry.

no Polterabend in US/GB but stag night

hen night

have / give / „throw“ a party to celebrate his "last night of freedom" or merely to spend time with his male friends go to / attend a party

fight

cheat
break up

to divorce
to split up
single parent

A honeymoon is the traditional holiday taken by newlyweds.

golden wedding anniversary (50th)